School Times - Fun Times

Being in school for nine months out of the year doesn't mean you have to sit in classes and study all of the time. Pep assemblies, media center, the commons, lunch, and outside by the bell are all areas that give students a chance to unwind and relax.

Pep assemblies allow students to partake in school spirit. Some pep assemblies that took place at the beginning of the year were for homecoming and others honored winter and spring sports participants. The commons and lunch time gave students a time to catch up on news, finish homework, and to pig-out.

All Around School

Many moods set the atmosphere at DeKalb High School from blowing bubbles while talking on the telephone to working hard on studies in the commons. Walking in the hallways one will see students occupied in many different areas. Working on graphic materials, technical drawing, foods classes, woods projects, child care and clothing courses. DHS has all the quality programs a high school needs.

As for activities, some sports were on the line for a while this year, but fortunately enough student participation and community support made it possible to keep the sports. DeKalb has always been near or at the top in its conference. Without sports programs many students would have been let down.

Minds in Motion

While studying for almost seven hours a day, students and faculty participate in various activities and classes. Even with faculty cutbacks and larger classes, students are still able to take a wide variety of courses including everything from accounting to zoology.

The day-to-day routine sometimes gets a little monotonous, but there are always projects that the teachers come up with to bring a change of pace. Some days there are labs to do for chemistry classes, work in the library, and for some students computers can be a good way to get away from boredom.

This has been an interesting year in entertainment.

In 1983 and during the first part of 1984 there was an upsurge in the music industry. Record sales, which had been declining, turned around and showed an 18 per cent increase over the past year.

One of the biggest reasons for the increase was the release of albums such as Michael Jackson's "Thriller." That album had sales of over $20 million and artist Michael Jackson walked away with eight Grammy Awards.

Other big albums of the year were The Police's "Synchronicity," Van Halen's "1984", and the "Flashdance Movie Soundtrack."

Songs of the year that dominated radio airplay were hits such as "Every Breath You Take," by The Police; "Billie Jean," by Michael Jackson; and "Flashdance . . . What A Feeling," by Irene Cara.

In the motion picture industry, "Flashdance," "Risky Business," "Trading Places," and "Footloose" were among the most popular movies. Other popular films were "Terms of Endearment," "Return of the Jedi," and a surprise hit, "Dead Zone."

Although the quality of many of the years' movies was quite good, television programming was generally average to poor.

Shows that did prosper were mainly prime-time soap operas such as "Dallas," "Dynasty," and "Knots Landing." Also getting high ratings were "The A-Team," "Hill Street Blues," and "60 Minutes." A number of shows featuring television and movie bloopers, along with favorite TV commercials, also did well in the ratings.

In addition to records, movies, and television, students had the opportunity to also enjoy locally-produced entertainment. Two dramatic productions were presented at DHS this year. The fall play, "David and Lisa," was the story of the lives of emotionally disturbed teenagers. "Guys and Dolls," the spring musical, was a mixture of comedy, dancing, and music.

A Fashionable Year

This year the fashions were different and unique. The styles ranged from the preppy look to the wild punk-out style. However, everyone was satisfied with their comfortable clothes, too.

Shoes and socks were "in" this year. Girls wore their pumps, boots, mocassins, duck shoes, jazz shoes and socks to match. The guys wore tennis shoes, docksiders, high tops and Turf shoes even if they were not out for football.

Short hair was commonly seen this year, with hair cut out around the ears, hair spiked on top or permed. No, cats and dogs were not the only ones with tails, the tail, either braided, dyed blond, or curly was a unique fad this year.

Mickey Mouse Joins Homecoming

Homecoming week was a great success with the whole school joining a Walt Disney theme, "When You Wish Upon A Star."

Students and teachers participated in the dress-up days which included "Wear What Dare" day.

Senior and junior girls took to the football field for the annual powder puff football game. A 26-26 tie was the outcome.

Friday's pep rally and parade proudly displayed the king and queen and their court. Jenny Diedrich and Phil Ewell reigned over the homecoming to make the week a bigger success. The varsity Barbs defeated the Elgin Maroons 28-0, in the homecoming game.

The dance featuring "Fan-Fare" ended the week of fun and tiring activities.

Disney Theme Prevails

The homecoming theme was Walt Disney's, "When you Wish Upon A Star." All of the halls were decorated with Disney characters or a magical scene. The front lobby was the site for the "Magic Kingdom" and "Sleeping Beauty." Also, the stairs were filled with observers as the famous monorail hung high above.

Thursday was Disney Character dress-up day. The school was clustered with Mickey and Minnie. The floats followed the theme well. The sophomores' float "Pooh on the Maroons" had "Winnie the Pooh" sipping from a jar of honey. The juniors had Dumbo flying over the Maroons. However, the seniors' "Blow'Em Down" float took first place. The float had the three pigs' straw house being huffed and puffed down by the mighty Barbs' wolf.

Around Town

What is found at the intersection of U.S. Highway 38 and Illinois Route 23? The City of DeKalb, Home of the Mighty Barbs.

When students aren't hitting the books, they find many forms of entertainment in downtown DeKalb and on the NIU campus.

Movies, fast food restaurants, clothing stores, and of course, cars provide ways for students to spend their hard-earned money around town.

Daron Excites Crowd

Daron White, one of the most exciting basketball players in DHS history, has been a pleasure to watch for the past two years.

A transfer student from Chicago's Crane High School, Daron averaged 21 points per game and 10 rebounds for the Barbs his junior year. He was also selected to the All-Conference Team as a junior.

As a senior Daron was a co-captain for the team and was named to the Holiday Tournament Team, the Leland G. Strombon Tournament Team. Daron was named to the All-Upstate Eight Team and was also named to both AP and UPI all-state teams.

Daron "Beaver" White will attend Northern Illinois University next year and will be playing basketball for the Huskies.

Break Dancer

Some people call it "The Boogie." Some people call it "break dancing." Some people call it "getting down."

No matter what a person labels it, one thing is for certain; Craig Watson knows how to move his body.

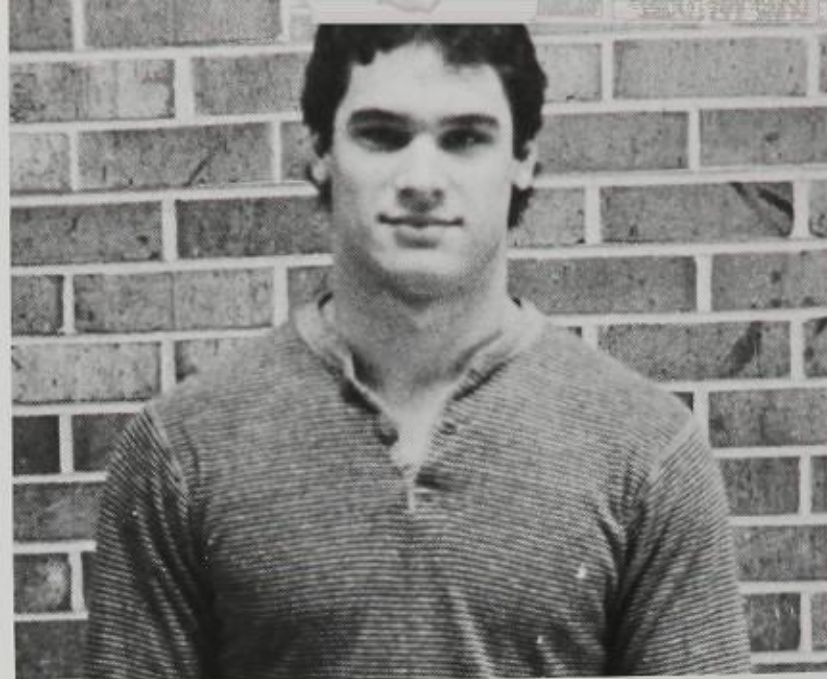

He entertained the student body at homecoming by making a surprise appearance at a pep assembly.

He then performed for a large crowd of students and local residents that afternoon right before the homecoming parade.

Watson, a Chicago native, transferred to DeKalb from Louisiana for his senior year.

What inspires him to come to a new school as a total stranger and confidently dance from class to class?

"It's something different. It's something I like to do, because I think it makes people happy. It's something I would like people to remember about their high school years."

A Leading Athlete

Athlete. Sportsman. Leader. Captain. Spirited. Winner. Dan Boardman.

Dan has shown what a true winner is. He has started as varsity fullback for three years. His junior and senior year were rewarded by the Upstate Eight with All-Conference honors. Dan's final year earned his peers' respect as Dan was named one of four co-captains.

Wrestling was always Dan's next step. As a sophomore, he won varsity conference championship. His junior year, Dan was undefeated until the state finals. He graciously accepted his first defeat and second in state. However, Dan made a vow to become champion his senior year. He was team captain and rated among the top wrestlers in state in his final prep season.

By standing tall in school and on the athletic field, Dan Boardman has made his name known among the excellent tradition of DHS athletes.

An Artist In Many Respects

Have you ever gone walking down the art hall and had a drawing in the display case catch your attention? Have you ever paged through New Pennies to find a picture you really liked? Or maybe while reading the Barblet you've fallen in love with an illustration of your favorite record or movie. In any of these cases, there is a good chance that the artist to thank is Jim Ledbetter.

Jim has been drawing as long as he can remember, and his record shows it. Jim has taken art classes in four years of high school. For the past two years he has been involved in the Artstrek Program at NIU. He also received a scholarship to attend a week-long art workshop in Champaign-Urbana.

His work was displayed at an art show and won him the Gold Key award. He has won numerous awards for his work in New Pennies. In addition, the Barblet featured many of his illustrations this year.

Jim's influences range from the work of the Old Master to that of Modern Artists. An early influence was comic books.

On the subject of art teachers, Jim says, "Teachers are mainly there for instruction and making the student aware of his or her abilities. But the most important learning comes from within."

Jim plans to major in art next semester at NIU. From there, the sky's the limit.

The Singles Rock DHS

The Senior Class has been involved in many types of music: orchestra, concert band, jazz band, choir, and, of course, The Singles.

The Singles is a rock band which plays a variety of music from the '60's and early '70's. Much of the music played by this group are songs by The Beatles, Rolling Stones, The Who, and The Kinks.

The band has had many name changes during their career. They began as The Discords, changed to the Suburbs, became Club Aluminum, and switched to their present name of The Singles.

Leader of the band and drummer Shane Spahr, and keyboards player Lary Ippolito are both seniors and key members of this group.

Spahr has been drumming for four years with the band. Ippolito has recently taken up keyboards in order to give the band a wider selection of music.

With most of the members of the Singles graduating this year, what is the fate of the band? Will they stay together, will they find new members, will they disband, or will they relocate? Only time will tell.

A Talented Musician

In the past few years there has been a trend of high school students forming rock and roll bands.

Amid this trend, it is nice to know that there are still students who study classical music. Katie Wiegele is one of those students.

Katie has been playing violin since fourth grade. Since then she has accumulated many honors and awards. She has received solo and ensemble superior ratings four years in a row.

She played with the Kishwaukee Symphony as a sophomore. In her last three years of high school she was concert mistress for the Pit Orchestra as well as Co-Concert Mistress for the orchestra. These three years also found her in the all-state honor orchestra.

Even with all the time spent practicing, Katie still finds time for schoolwork. She is in the National Honor Society and an Illinois State Scholar.

WENDY STEWARD

All-Around Student

Good grades can be enough to keep some students busy. However, along with having good grades Lisa Stach is also actively involved in many other facets of high school life.

Lisa had been Rotary Club's Student of The Month and National Merit Semi-Finalist. She has also been a member of National Honor Society and is an Illinois State Scholar.

Music has also been a part of Lisa's high school career. She is a member of marching band, concert band, jazz band, and orchestra. Lisa has also had five leads in DHS theater productions, two of which were in "Oliver" and "Guys and Dolls."

Lisa's interest in the theater has played an important role, also. She is the president of Drama Club and the Thespians. She is also the captain of the forensics team and has competed at the state tournament.

All in all Lisa had enjoyed her high school life and if she had the option of doing it all over again she said she would love to.

Dedicated Dancer

Most students seem to feel that they have more than enough classes at DHS. That doesn't seem to be the case with Carolyn Casella.

Carolyn has been taking classes at Northern Illinois University in addition to her DHS classes since her sophomore year.

Carolyn's NIU classes have centered around dancing, mainly ballet. She has been dancing since she was very young and continues taking lessons.

She took NIU dance classes instead of P.E. her junior and senior years.

Although she has invested a lot of time and effort into dancing, she does not plan to pursue a dancing career. She will continue taking dance classes but wants to major in biology.

Principal Brayfield Retires

"There have been many fine achievements made by young people here," said Mr. Robert Brayfield, who retired this year after serving as principal for 11 years.

Brayfield started teaching 29 years ago. He came to DeKalb School District in 1955 as an English teacher. Later he added journalism to his schedule.

In 1972 Brayfield became principal of the high school after four years as assistant principal.

"I think that DeKalb is an unique community. There has always been a lot of student involvement and many outstanding achievements," Brayfield said.

As for future plans, Brayfield said he will relax for a month or two and then move to another job.

White led DeKalb in scoring once again with a 21 point per game average, and was selected to the all-state team.

The Barbs had three returning starters to help them through the season. They were seniors Bill Cordes, Daron White and junior Steve Tuecke.

Other returning lettermen were seniors Joe Diab, Jim Balli, and Steve Holtsford.

The Barbs won their regional tournament, but lost the first game in the sectional tournament in an exciting game against Sterling that went to three overtimes before DeKalb was defeated.

DeKalb ended its season 22-6 and took third place in the Upstate Eight Conference.

The girls' varsity basketball team had a very young team this season with only two upperclassmen. The rest were sophomores.

One reason for this is because Coach Tom Malmgren took disciplinary actions against some of the upperclassmen players.

The girls' team ended the season with a 5-19 record.

Well, it's been fun being in class with you, even though the O-O. I'm glad we got to be friends. I think you're a very sweet girl. Hope you'll be enjoyed your high school. It's been a pretty fun time, when we went to Newman-Marcus. That was a lot of fun. I was hoping our O-O. class would get on another trip, but unfortunately we didn't go. Don't work too hard, but make as much money as you can. We should get together this summer and go shopping or something. Hope that your future things will be wonderful. Good luck in your life out in the "real world." I'll miss you. Love always, Elaine a long way!

P.S. - you come

This year has been the greatest. It would never have been the same if I hadn't been friends with you. They, I can be totally myself around you - we like all the same things. Music, clothes, movies, people. I've never had ~~as~~ a friend to share all that with before I met you.

2nd hour was the best - our hour... Brunch, McDonalds, White Hen Pantry, 7-11. Everytime I pass one of those places I'll think of you. Cincinnati isn't that far away, so I hope to be back for weekend visits every now + then. I'm really looking forward to you visiting me. Especially after I get my own place. <sup>(Visitors)</sup>
I'm talkin a good time here they. "The Apple", "Boyz n the City", we'll dance "All Night Long"! You know, like "jam on it", there will be a "Freak show baby, baby on the dance floor," because, I'm just a sucker for a pretty face!  and lots of M.T's. I'll remember the nights at  and when we went out with M.C. + P.C. I really hope you don't feel bad about yourself for what you did - it was fun for you (I think), that's all that matters... you! Your happiness

I'm so lucky - because you put up with all my confusion about P.C. I can't imagine who I would have talked to about everything (and I do mean everything). You always listened even when I know you didn't really want to. I can't tell you how much that means to me. Your shoulder was always there! I never meant to make you jealous by telling you all the stuff we did - maybe not jealous, just sick up to here! I wanted to share it with you. I'm only sorry that you didn't have someone too. But, you're the most stable person I know. You're okay just how you are. You don't need people to do things for you. You; you're just great! And I know you'll do alright at N/V. Meeting new people is kind of scary.

But just remember I'll be going through the same thing. See, we'll still be together - the miles don't mean anything. I will miss you. Who else can I call at 11:00 p.m., who else can I go shopping with and share clothes with, who else can I drink endless amounts of diet pop with + sing wicky, wicky, wicky, wicky!?! I am on it!

I'm positive you'll be going to Florida with me. Spazzing out over a gorgeous guy all by myself, might get myself ~~to~~ spending the night in a funny farm! I mean serious craziness to the max. The sun, the heat, the beach, the guys, the night life... what a life! That spells good time to me!

6-0-0-D-T-I-M-E Twitter!

Let's just hope by then I've mastered Burger King drive-thru's. Oh wow now embarrassing that would be if there were 6 Q's on hand. Ahh Florida.

Speaking of 6 Q's, I know you'll meet some next year. And I'll be ready to listen about all your evenings.

You can call me anytime 513-563-8965 (just in case you lose it), 10775 Wycawer, Cincinnati, Ohio, 45241.

Ooh baby I can't wait til August!

Hey, you have great brothers too. I mean, I appreciate them putting up with me day after day. Your parents really are ok too. They let you do a lot this year + I'm glad they did.

After graduation we'll be fresh in dress, and movin' to the grave at the jams Friday night, we'll be lookin' so right,  $\frac{1}{2}$  jumpin' in the light. You're my best friend, til the end.

There are plenty of 6 Q's, for me + you, it's true!

So don't worry about tomorrow, there'll be no sorrow

Because you're my best friend, til the end.
